

The Human Subjects Protection Program and
New Brunswick Institutional Review Board Office

Educational Session

“Basics for Informed Consent in Research”

This session will cover several key topics instrumental to understanding the consent process in human subjects' research:

- Overview of the ethical principles underlying informed consent
- Current regulatory requirements
- Common findings by auditors
- The subject's view of the consent process

April 4, 2012
9:30 a.m. – 11:30 a.m.

Location:

UMDNJ- New Brunswick Campus
Cancer Institute of New Jersey
195 Little Albany Street
Auditorium A

Speakers:

Paula Bistak, D.M.H., RN, MS, CIP, CHRC
Executive Director, Human Subjects Protection Program

Donna Hoagland, LPN, BS, CIP, CCRC
IRB Director, New Brunswick/Piscataway Campus

Cheryl A Forst, RN, BSN, CCRP
Director, Human Subjects Protection Analysts

Chris Asmann-Finch, DMH, MS
Program Development Specialist, HSPP

There is no continuing education credit awarded for this session

RSVP to Shelia Evans: evanssg@umdnj.edu

This session will also be presented on the Newark, Piscataway, and Stratford campus; date and location will be announced.